Family Education Rights and Privacy Act of 1974

The following statement concerning student records maintained by Austin Community College is published in compliance with the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act of 1974. The release of information to the public without the consent of the student will be limited to that designated as directory information. Directory information includes name, address, telephone number, date and place of birth, major field of study, participation in activities, dates of attendance, degrees, certificates and awards, and name of most previous educational institution attended. Any student objecting to the release of all or any portion of such information must notify the Office of Admissions in writing and the restriction will remain in effect until revoked by the student.

I authorize Austin Community College to release all information necessary, including my name and Social Security number, to the Texas Workforce Commission, for purposes of tracking employment and wages. This compiled employment and wage information will be provided only to local Workforce Development Boards and will not be released to any other organization or person without my written approval. I understand that the release of these records is required to meet federal program reporting requirements in the process of securing funding for certain qualified students enrolled in Continuing Education Workforce programs and will be kept strictly confidential.

Students with disabilities that need accommodations should contact ACC's Office for Students with Disabilities at (512) 223-2026 or TTY 512-223-2019 or visit www.austincc.edu/osd for more information.
