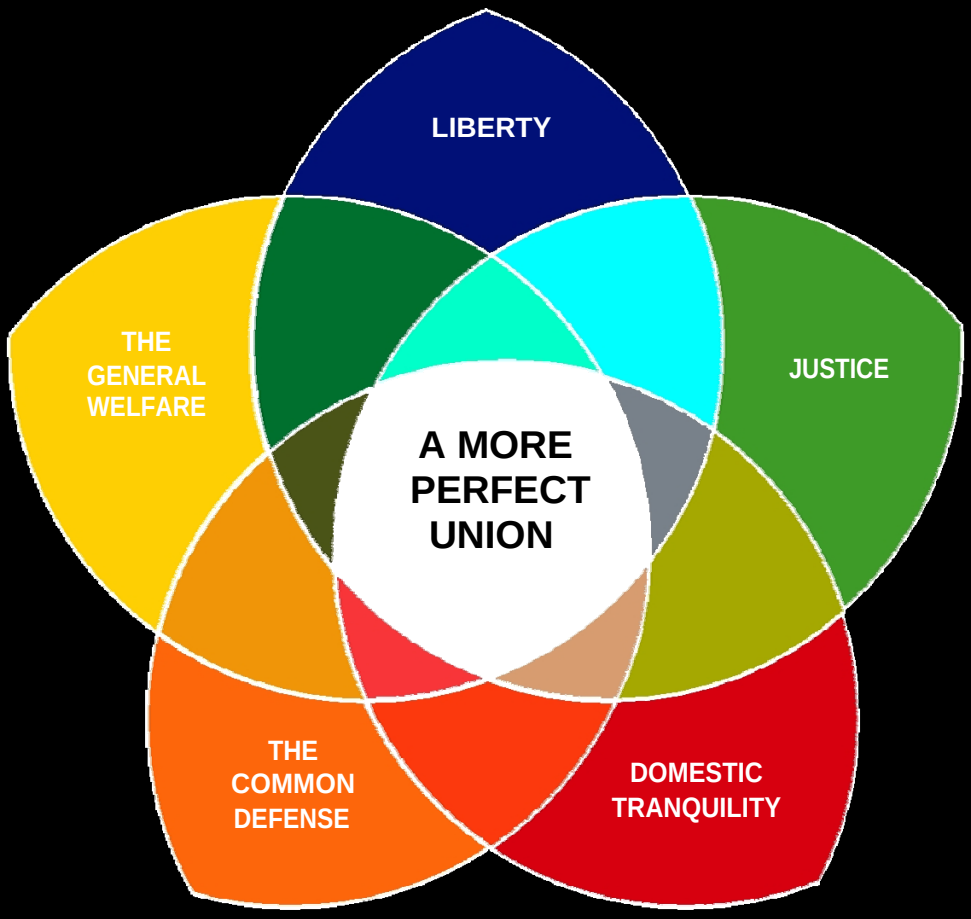
ACC CONSTITUTION DEBATE DAY CELEBRATION

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 18, 2012 5:30-8:30 PM



Palmer Events Center, 900 Barton Springs Rd, Austin, TX

FREE FOOD PROVIDED

ACC's Center for Public Policy and Political Studies (CPPPS), its Division of Social and Behavioral Sciences, their Center for Student Political Studies Group, and the Student Government Association invite ACC students to examine their knowledge and beliefs about the U.S. Constitution, and to reflect on the state of their rights in today's politically-charged climate.

Co-host of the program is the City of Austin, with honorary Chairman Councilmember Mike Martinez

The event is co-sponsored by the ACLU Foundation of Texas and The American Board of Trial Advocates

ACC students needing a sign language interpreter or other accommodations, please contact John Aintablian at aint@austincc.edu at least 48 hours in advance

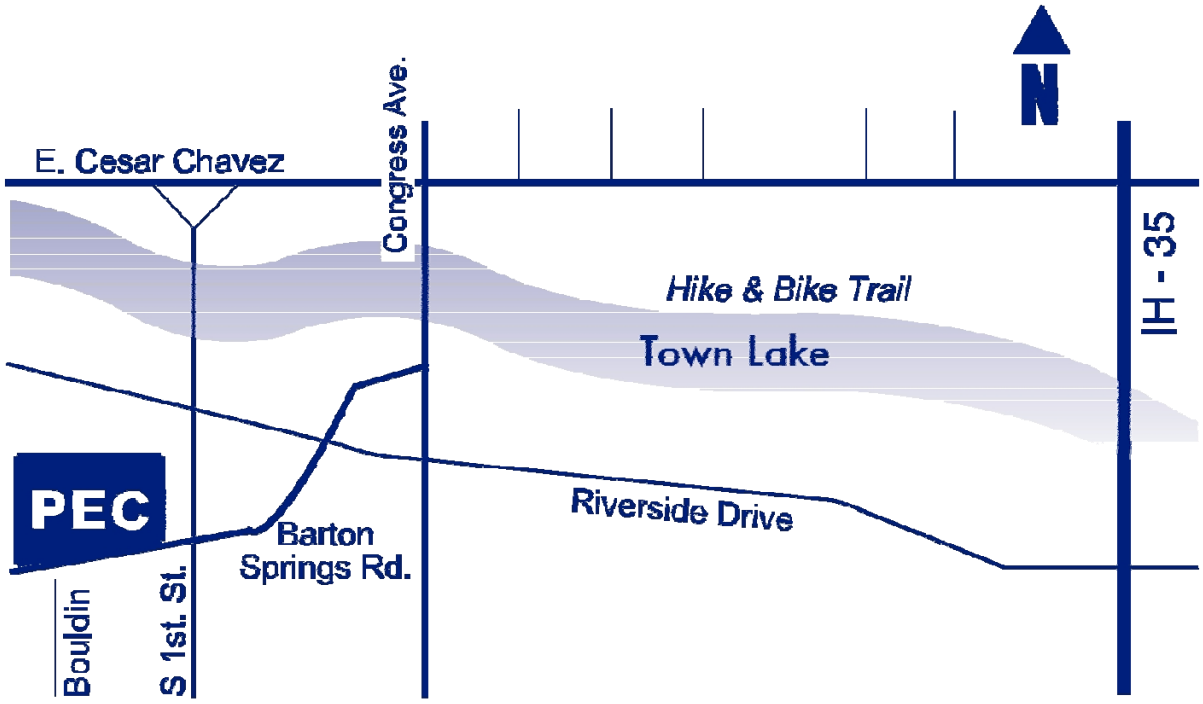
Questions? 512-223-7050 or mkaplan@austincc.edu

PALMER
Events
CENTER



PEC Palmer Events Center
(and PEC Parking Garage)

The new PEC features an on-site four-story 1,200-car Parking Garage. The north entrance to the Parking Garage is on Riverside Drive, near South First Street. The south entrance is on Barton Springs Road, between Bouldin and Dawson streets. A drop-off circular drive on Barton Springs Road provides easy access to the facility's main entrance.

Austin Community College's Constitution Debate Day participants will receive complimentary parking. If an attendant is present, please state that you are here for the Debate.

PDF to Word