

In a post 9/11 world... WHAT RIGHTS DO WE HAVE?

Do the laws of the Constitution still apply?

For one hotly contested night only, debate/discuss/share Constitutional issues with experts and friends. Learn about what you should be fighting for!

Constitution Debate Celebration at ACC
Wednesday, September 24, 2008, 6-8:30 pm

Keynote Speaker: Dr. Gregory J. Vincent, Vice President for Diversity and Community Engagement, The University of Texas at Austin

ACC's Eastview Multipurpose room, Bldg. 8000, 3401 Webberville Road, Austin, TX

This event is free and open to all ACC students, staff and faculty

Light refreshments will be available

Hosted by the Center for Public Policy and Political Studies, the Government Department, and the Division of Social & Behavioral Sciences at ACC liberty security surge Roe vs. Wade cruel and unusual punishment justice values right to bear arms immigration imperial presidency wire tapping glass ceiling profiling privacy war on terror democracy debate veto bipartisan watchdog border fence church and state affirmative action water boarding intelligence red state election fraud civil rights blue state executive order color blind socialized health care entitlement patriot act campaign finance reform

Visit austincc.edu/cpps or (512) 223.7049 for more information