CAREERS, EMPLOYMENT, SCHOLARSHIPS, UNIFORMS, TOOLS, TRANSPORTATION are only a few the reasons that you need to know more about WIA.

The Workforce Investment Act or WIA is a no cost, federally funded, individualized program to help students reach their employment goals.

WIA can provide:

- Scholarships for school/career training for TWC approved training programs. Listing is located in our web site at www.worksourceaustin.com
- Intensive job search assistance
- Transportation assistance
- Interview clothing and uniforms assistance for school or work
- Tools needed for your new job
- Child care assistance while in training

With the assistance of one of our career and employment specialist we can develop an employment plan that is right for students based upon skills, education, and personal goals.

To find out more about WIA eligibility, students are welcome to attend our weekly orientation session which takes place on Friday's at 9:30 am in Room #1208, Bldg. #1000, and ACC Eastview Campus.

If you are unable to attend an orientation, individual appointment orientation times may be arranged by contacting Liz Vazquez, Senior WIA Program Specialist at 223-5497 or Marisa Rodriguez, WIA Eligibility Specialist at 223-5441.

WorkSource Career Center East: 3401 Webberville Rd., Bldg. 1000, Hours of operation are Monday – Thursday: 7:30am – 6:30pm and Friday: 8:00am – 5:00pm. For more information please call 512-223-5400. Auxiliary Aids & Services are available upon request for persons with disabilities.

Office of Student Life - EVC

Unity Jam Festival

Austin Community College's Office of Student Life is excited to announce its 3rd annual Unity Jam Festival on April 11th, 2007 at the Eastview campus. The Festival is from 11:00am until 2:00pm in courtyard adjacent to the Student lounge. We are celebrating diversity from around the world. There will be food, entertainment, and music.

Unity Jam provides the chance for the Austin Community College faculty, staff, and students to explore the great amenities of many cultures while enjoying festival events such as dancing, song, musical talents, and skits. The goal is to unite all students of various backgrounds, groups, cultures, and ethnicity for an entertaining afternoon of celebrating and recognizing our differences. It is an empowering event focusing on multicultural issues, the unique aspects of different cultures, and diversity awareness.

For more information contact the Office of Student Life at 223-5304.

Editorial Retraction

In last month's story about a "Discussion and a Celebration, Celebrating Black History", the story stated that the Cultural Center presented the event, but in fact the event was hosted by the Office of Student Life.
