

ACC Students

Looking for some extra $ help in these hard times???

Here are some resources for financial aid and other help you can check out online:

<http://www.austincc.edu/support/financialaid/> The best place for an ACC student to get information on financial assistance at ACC

<http://www.austincc.edu/foundatn/scholarships/index.php> Information and links to scholarships, including both general and department specific scholarships, just for ACC students

http://www3.austincc.edu/it/eforms/forms_int/STAS.003.0910.pdf Application for ACC general scholarships

<http://www.austincc.edu/support/financialaid/spappeal.php> You may qualify for a Special Conditions Appeal if you believe your financial need has changed. Check out this site for the application. Special circumstances include:

- Unusual medical expenses
- A reduction in earnings
- Death of a spouse or parent
- Separation or divorce
- Disability
- Private school tuition expenses
- One-time income such as severance pay, etc.

<https://Helmnet.thecb.state.tx.us> Information on finding and applying for educational loans

www.CollegeforAllTexans.com Provides help in filling out forms to apply for financial aid

<http://hispanicscholar.org> Special resources for Hispanic students www.BrokeScholar.com A good place to start applying for scholarships and staying organized in your search www.scholarship.com Search for various scholarship by criteria you choose www.unitedwaycapitalarea.org/get_help_2-1/ Search the 211 database for help with health care, employment, housing, counseling, etc. in the central Texas area http://www.austincc.edu/support/advising/counseling/counseling_a.php#anxiety Help with the anxiety and stress of financial difficulties. ACC can provide support.

http://www.austincc.edu/support/advising/counseling/counseling_gm.php#grief A site for helping one deal with the loss of a job or financial security which can be very difficult. ACC can help.