A: You can sign up for a voluntary 403(b) tax-sheltered annuity or 457 deferred compensation retirement account, or, if eligible, an Optional Retirement Program account. A: Yes, you will still use your agent to make specific investment decisions and for additional financial planning, but now you no longer need your agent to sign off on contribution changes.

Q: What if I need a withdrawal?
A: Unfortunately, we are not able to request hardship loans or withdrawals through Retirement Manager at this time. Please contact your vendor directly to make such a request.

Q: Can I get an up-to-date statement of my account?
A: You can view account balances for some vendors through Retirement Manager presently. If your account balance isn't accessible through Retirement Manager, you will need to obtain that information from your vendor directly. You will always need to contact your vendor directly for more comprehensive statements. Links to all vendors’ websites and contact information for all ACC agents are included in Retirement Manager.
