SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS

- THIS SYLLABUS WILL GIVE YOU ALL THE INFORMATION ABOUT THE COURSE. PLEASE READ IT CAREFULLY
- LOG ON TO BLACKBOARD on (click on blue rectangle) ON the first day of class (June 1) TO COMPLETE THE REQUIRED ORIENTATION (you will have until June 5 to complete it).
- EMAIL INSTRUCTIONS: PLEASE BE SURE TO USE MY ACC EMAIL ADDRESS and under subject LIST PSYC 2319 or SOCI 2326 (depending which course you are registered for) on all the emails you sent to me.....next to PSYC 2319 or SOCI. 2326, write Orientation, Urgent, Contact, or Question under subject, so that I know how soon to reply and the nature of your communication (remember that I will have over 100 students, and I teach 3 different classes, so please help me out so that we can communicate as effectively as possible)
COURSE DESCRIPTION
This course is a survey of theories, research, and methods of social psychology including the topics of the self, conflict, aggression, power, group dynamics, and decision making.

COURSE GOAL & TOPICS:
Social psychology is the scientific study of how individuals think, influence, and relate to one another. The goal of this course is to introduce students to a survey of the basic theories and research methods in social psychology, an interaction between the fields of sociology and psychology. The topics addressed in this course include prejudice, conformity, self-concept formation, persuasion, interpersonal attraction, sex-roles, and obedience to authority, altruism, conflict, aggression, and group dynamics.

COURSE PREREQUISITES:
Introduction to Psychology (PSYC. 2301)
OR Introduction to Sociology (SOCl. 1301)

COMMON COURSE OBJECTIVES/ STUDENT OUTCOMES:
The common course objectives or goals include the following: The student will be able to demonstrate knowledge concerning representative social psychological theories, research findings and/or principles concerning the following topics:
- Research Methods in Social Psychology
- Social Identity (such as the study of the self, gender, locus of control, etc)
- Prejudice and Discrimination
- Conformity
- Aggression and Pro-social Behaviors
- Attraction & Interpersonal relationships
- Group Dynamics (such as group think and decision making, leadership, persuasion, conflict, cooperation, etc)
- Social Cognition & Attitudes

The specific learning objectives for this course are structured to help students master the content of the text that will appear on their tests. If a student is able to answer the essay question format of the objectives, then she or he should do well on the tests. Since the objectives are somewhat detailed, they will appear on the social psychology web page or within Blackboard under course documents….and be titled: LEARNING OBJECTIVES: STUDY GUIDE

COURSE ASSIGNMENTS:
As a student you are responsible for:
1. Log on to Blackboard Use the following link:
   http://itdl.austincc.edu/blackboard/stlogin.htm.
2. Complete your on-line Orientation in Blackboard
3. Reading the entire text
4. taking three (3) objective-type, multiple-choice exams during the semester by the assigned deadlines dates (Pease keep your test receipts from the testing center)
5. contact your professor at least twice during the semester –contacts may be made by email, on-line, telephone, or in person(during office hours);

Social Psychology 2
6. Optional Extra Credit Projects: Discussion Board, Community Service or Research Paper on Health Psychology, Meditation, Culture and Social Psychology: Latinos, Asian American, Native American, African American, evaluation of the publishers/textbook website…..

http://www.mhhe.com/myerse4 or www.mhhe.com/myersesp4

REQUIRED EXAMS:
You are required to take THREE objective-type (multiple choice) exams. The three exams will each have 50 questions and are each worth 100 points, or more, since I may surprise you and add bonus questions. Therefore, to get your final score, you can multiply the number correct(raw score) times (X) two and that will equal your score.

If I include extra bonus questions (more than 50 questions), thus making your possible score greater than 100 points….you would still multiply your raw score or number correct by 2. The score you get will be your final score on that test).

Remember to keep your test receipts from the testing center until you get your final grade at the end of the semester. Also calculate your score from the test receipt and give me 2 weeks to post your grade on Blackboard…sometimes it takes that long for me to receive your test. If your calculations are not equal to mine, contact me immediately via email and phone….

TEST DEADLINES ARE IMPORTANT
If you cannot meet the stated deadlines, you must contact the professor prior to the deadline to discuss alternate dates for testing. However check your Announcements on Blackboard first because your professor will occasionally grant general extensions for all students…also listen to the message on your instructor’s voicemail.

ALL EXTENSIONS ON TESTS WILL REQUIRE THAT STUDENTS TAKE THE TEST AT THE RGC TESTING CENTER.

Unusual circumstances will be taken into consideration if discussed with the instructor before these deadlines. The instructor reserves the right to refuse any late tests, unless the instructor had previously agreed to extend the deadline. If you did not take all three required exams, your final average will be lowered by one full letter grade or lower, depending on the number of tests missed. In addition, numerical scores for exams not taken will be zero.

There are no retests in this course.

Exam Questions – Most of the exam questions cover the assigned readings in the textbook and are based on the objectives/study guide (under course documents on Blackboard). If you know the answers to all the essay questions on your Specific Course Objectives, you should do well on your exams. Try the Publishers web site to enhance your learning.

Exam Feedback – After you have completed a test, the Testing Center staff will give you a Student Feedback Form or Receipt with the result of your test. It is essential that you keep this form; it is your only evidence that you took that particular test. Errors in the system are rare, but they do occur. After you have received your final grade in the course, it is safe to dispose of your Student Feedback Forms. Any duplicate exams received by the instructor will result in a score of zero for that particular item. You may come by during my office hours or call for an appointment to go over items missed on the exam. Please allow time for your test to be returned to us by intercampus mail (may take up to 2 weeks).

TESTING CENTERS:

All exams will be taken at the Testing Centers located on the Northridge (NRG), Pinnacle(PINN), Riverside(RVS), Rio Grande(RGC), South Austin (SAC), Round Rock, Eastview(EVC), Cyprus Creek, Fredericksburg, and San Marcos campuses. The deadline for each exam is listed in the Course Schedule- Calendar----Deadlines section of this syllabus. Test permits are not required. Click here for Testing Center Hours. No exams will be given one hour before closing hours unless otherwise noted. Testing center hours are subject to change without notice. Please call the testing center where you wish to take your test before going in. This could save you some time and frustration. Also, particularly around deadlines and at the end of the semester, there can be a wait of an hour or more to get into the testing centers.

After you have completed a test, the Testing Center staff will give you a Student Feedback Form with the result of your test. It is essential that you keep this form; it is your only evidence that you took that particular test. Errors in the system are rare, but they do occur. After you have received your final grade in the course, it is safe to dispose of your Student Feedback Forms. Any duplicate exams received by the instructor will result in a score of zero for that particular item.

MANDATORY CONFERENCES WITH THE INSTRUCTOR:

The Texas State Coordinating Board of Education has required that for a self-paced or ITV course to be certified, instructors and students need to have at least two contacts with each other by email, during the semester, in addition to the required orientation session. THEREFORE, FOR A STUDENT TO GET CREDIT FOR THIS COURSE, HE/SHE MUST MAKE CONTACT, EITHER BY EMAIL, IN PERSON, OR BY PHONE, WITH THE INSTRUCTOR OR HER TEACHING ASSISTANT ON AT LEAST TWO OCCASIONS DURING THE SEMESTER. DEADLINES FOR CONTACTS ARE FLEXIBLE. You are of course, welcome to have as many additional contacts with the instructor or her assistant as you wish.
EXTRA CREDIT: OPTIONAL ACTIVITIES:
MAXIMUM NUMBER OF EXTRA CREDIT POINTS: 30 POINTS
VOLUNTEER WORK OR RESEARCH PAPER OR EVALUATION OF PUBLISHERS WEB
SITE OR DISCUSSION BOARD ON BLACKBOARD

EVALUATION OF PUBLISHERS WEB SITE: 20 POINTS
VISIT THE PUBLISHERS WEB SITE FOR THE TEXTBOOK:
http://www.mhhe.com/myerse4

Each MODULE will have activities for you to explore such as tests under the quizzes and interactive exercises, as well as videos…and links. If you can not access the links because you have an old edition of the textbook do not worry…its not required. On the first MODULE you will need to evaluate all of the activities on the subsequent MODULES you can pick 3 of your favorite to evaluate. You will need to evaluate all the modules for each unit of study, and receive from 5 to 10 points for each unit of study, depending on the quality of your work. Check to see if there are errors on the tests and let me know where they are….do not email me your test results, just let me know what your scores were (and how many times you took the test or quiz)…There are three units of study, so you can pick 2 of the 3 or evaluate…..or all three, however only 20 points of extra credit can be given for this project.

In order to access the information needed to complete the evaluation, see the outline format on page 13 …last page of this syllabus…..you can email me the evaluation when finished, by the deadline.

DISCUSSION FORUM = 15 POINTS

Contributions to a discussion focus on topics covered in the textbook before the relevant exams. Each unit of study will have a topic or several topics you may wish to discuss. The purpose of this assignment is to share reactions and insights to the readings with other students. The page number from your text reflecting the idea or topic needs to be noted, and then the observation is shared. Including additional web sites exploring the topic is recommended. Contributions are encouraged which discover something in the text which is useful, memorable, intriguing, counterintuitive, controversial, noteworthy, novel, applicable to one's own or others' lives, etc....

In any course situation that includes discussion and critical thinking, there are bound to be many differing viewpoints, especially on sensitive, controversial topics. We must respect the views of others and create an atmosphere where both the students and the instructor are encouraged to think, learn, and share information. Viewpoints that are carefully thought and expressed in an organized, orderly manner can be used to enhance learning. These viewpoints as well as any feedback or general comments must be provided in a non-offensive, respectful manner. Your course grade will not be adversely affected by the viewpoints that you may express on assignments. Instead, the grade will be based on your knowledge and understanding of concepts and principles within the specific subject area as well as their theoretical and research-based foundations and applications.
Your contribution to each topic within each unit will be worth from 1 to 5 points depending on the content of your discussion….5 points total for each unit will be given and entries must be made by the deadline (same as test for that unit of study-see course calendar or schedule in the syllabus). If the test deadline is extended, the discussion topic will not be extended….these deadlines are strict, entries after the deadline will not be given credit.

In order to access the discussion unit forum, you must log-on to Blackboard, at http://ACConline.austincc.edu. This is not possible until the semester for which you are registered has actually begun. Information on user name and password is available at the log-in site. Go to "Discussion board" within Blackboard, to participate in the Discussion Forum. If you want to start a new topic for discussion, use the "Add Forum" button.

NOTE: The discussions are not in real time. You may contribute at any hour of the day or night prior to the deadline.

VOLUNTEER WORK = 20 POINTS

For additional points, students may complete 20 hours of volunteer work in the community. This experience has to be related to social psychology and must be approved by the instructor (see attached information sheet on volunteer work). Students may also create their own extra credit project to replace community service. This project will need to be related to Social Psychology and must be approved by the professor of this course. The Volunteer Log and instructions are given at the end of your syllabus….I will also include them in Blackboard under course documents,

RESEARCH PAPER= 20 POINTS

Students have the option of writing a research paper instead of conducting community service. The paper needs to be typed and the body of the paper needs to be at least 5 pages double spaced. Two books and five articles need to be included. The topics for the research paper can include: Health Psychology, Meditation, Culture and Social Psychology: Latinos, Asian American, Native American, African American. The topic on culture will need to address the psychological aspects of that particular culture in terms of social psychology. For example: “Exploration of Gender Differences in the Latino Culture” or “Attribution theory applied to the African American”. Please consult with the professor before starting your paper.

GRADE DETERMINATION:

Your grade in this course is determined by a point system. You may accrue points toward your final grade by a combination of the Required Exams, and Extra Credit Options including the Optional Volunteer Work/Paper, Survey: Evaluation of the Publishers Web Site, Discussion Forum, and Bonus Test.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>

<tr>
<td>Extra Credit:</td>
<td>30</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>MAXIMUM TOTAL POINTS POSSIBLE:</td>
<td>330 or more if I include bonus questions on your tests</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
FINAL LETTER GRADES:
Letter grades will be assigned as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>POINT SYSTEM</th>
<th>FINAL GRADE</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>270 – 330 or more</td>
<td>= A</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>240 – 269</td>

</tr>
<tr>
<td>210 – 239</td>
<td>= C</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>180 – 209</td>
<td>= D</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>0 – 179</td>
<td>= F</td>
</tr>
</tbody>

NOTE: REMEMBER that after you have completed a test, the Testing Center staff will give you a Student Feedback Form or test receipt with the result of your test performance. It is essential that you keep this form; it is your only evidence that you took that particular test. Errors in the system are rare, but they do occur. After you have received your final grade in the course, it will be “safe” to dispose of your Feedback Forms.

Also when you look at your scores on Blackboard, it will indicate much more than 330 points because the program does not allow for options in extra credit with a limit of 30 points. If you do not take your test at the RGC testing center, please give me 2 weeks to post your grade….I usually check the discussion and post the scores the day after the deadline.

COURSE POLICIES

RETESTING POLICY:
There are no re-tests offered in this course, although students may bring up their grade through extra-credit projects.

SCHOLASTIC DISHONESTY:
“Acts prohibited by the college for which discipline may be administered include scholastic dishonesty, including but not limited to cheating on an exam or quiz, plagiarizing, unauthorized collaboration with another in preparing outside work. Academic work submitted by students shall be the result of their thought, research, or self-expression. Academic work is defined as, but not limited to tests, quizzes, classroom presentations, and homework.” (Student Handbook 2002-2003, p.32) The instructor will be responsible for specifying the penalty that will be assessed for violation of this policy.

Students who are guilty of scholastic dishonesty will automatically fail this course. They will also be reported to Student Services so that appropriate disciplinary action can be followed.

INCOMPLETE GRADE: In general, incompletes will not be given. Exceptions to this would include verifiable cases involving hospitalization or excessive travel required by one’s employer. The instructor has the option to evaluate the severity of the students’ situation and decide if an incomplete is merited. The student must provide a written explanation concerning the extenuating circumstance before an incomplete is considered by the instructor. You will need to write a letter requesting an incomplete for either personal, health, or work related reasons, include the course information, name, telephone numbers where you can be reached, mailing address, signature and when you believe you can complete the course requirements (date). You can email or send to my office at RGC or mail to ACC, Dr. Maria Cisneros-Solis, 1212 Rio Grande Street, Austin Texas 78701

WITHDRAWAL POLICY: Failure to take scheduled tests or poor performance on the course requirements may lead to withdrawal. While the instructor reserves the right to withdraw a student based on lack of progress, it is the student’s responsibility to withdraw from this course. Instructor welcomes and recommends student conferences to discuss progress in the class.

A student may withdraw at any time during the semester until the withdrawal deadline without academic penalty. To withdraw from a course, simply complete the withdrawal form available at any ACC Admissions and Records office. It takes about five minutes, does not affect your GPA, and looks much better on your transcript than an “F”. The instructor reserves the right to withdraw a student for lack of progress in the course.

BE AWARE!: The instructor has the option of dropping you from the course if the above deadlines are not met. Yet it is the students’ responsibility to withdraw before the deadline if satisfactory test scores are not achieved.
The responsibility of officially withdrawing rests entirely with the student. If you stop meeting the requirements of the course and are not officially withdrawn, You Will Then Receive a Grade of “F”.

Adding, Dropping, or Withdrawing from a Course: Additional Information
Adding, dropping, or withdrawing from a course may affect financial aid, veterans’ benefits, international student status, or academic standing. See an advisor or counselor before making changes.

Adding or dropping a course (schedule changes): Students may add or drop a course before open registration ends or during the session’s official schedule change (add/drops) period. See the course schedule for information on add/drops procedures, deadlines, and tuition refunds.

Withdrawing from a course: Students may withdraw from one or more courses prior to the withdrawal deadline by submitting a request form to Admissions and Records. Withdrawal deadlines are published in the academic calendar. Withdrawal courses appear on the student’s record with a grade of W. Until a student is officially withdrawn, the student remains on the class roll and may receive a grade of F for the course.

Students are responsible for understanding the impact withdrawing from a course may have on their financial aid, veterans’ benefits, international student status, and academic standing. Students are urged to consult with their advisor before making schedule changes.

Per state law, students enrolling for the first time in fall of 2007 or later at any Texas college or university may not withdraw (receive a W) from more than six courses during their undergraduate college career. Some exemptions for good cause could allow a student to withdraw from a course without having it count toward this limit. Students are encouraged to carefully select courses; contact an advisor or counselor for assistance.

REINSTATEMENT POLICY: Students may be reinstated in the class if there are extenuating circumstances (i.e., hospitalization, etc.) connected with their failure to meet requirements and if they are able to catch up on all units and take exams within a two-week period.

ACADEMIC FREEDOM POLICY: Each student is strongly encouraged to participate, discuss topics, and present their own views in this class.

DISABILITY STATEMENT POLICY: “Each ACC campus offers support services for students with documented physical or psychological disabilities. Students with disabilities must request reasonable accommodations through the Office for Students with Disabilities on the campus where written explanation concerning the extenuating circumstance before an incomplete is considered by the instructor.

ACC TESTING CENTER POLICY: In order to take any exam at any ACC Testing Center, you must have both your student ID validated with a sticker for the current semester (or your fee receipt if you have not yet received an I.D.) along with a photo ID such as a driver’s license, DPS ID, or passport. No student will be permitted to test in ACC Testing Centers without two forms of identification, one of which must have a photo. To take any test, you need to present two forms of identification to the Testing Center staff. Do not even ask testing center personnel to allow you to test without these items. If you lose your ID, you must obtain duplicates before you will be allowed to take any test(s) at any ACC Testing Center. Any exams taken without proper identification will be recorded as a zero. Any attempts at cheating earns the student a grade of F in the course.
DETAILED OUTLINE ON VOLUNTEER WORK

VOLUNTEER WORK: A minimum of 20 hours is required. This extra credit work is optional. It will be worth 5 to 20 points (depending on the summary paper). No work less than 20 hours will be accepted. A log and a three page summary are required. The summary must be typewritten and include the advantages and disadvantages of the experience, as well as how it applies to Social Psychology. The following outline for the time log can be used:

SURVEY
EVALUATION OF THE PUBLISHERS WEBSITE FOR YOUR TEXTBOOK

List each of the activities (includes tests, interactive activities, and videos) in each of the chapters on the unit of study and then answer the following questions and rate each activity on a 5 point scale (with 1 as the lowest and 5 as the highest rating).

Remember that for the first Module you will need to list all of the activities, and for subsequent chapters only your favorite 3. You will need to evaluate all the modules for each unit of study, and receive from 5 to 10 points for each unit of study, depending on the quality of your work. There are three units of study, so you can pick 2 of the 3 or evaluate all three however only 20 points of extra credit can be given for this activity.

Questions to answer for each activity:
Chapter # ____ Name of the Activity_______
1. Describe the activity.
2. Overall Rating____ Why?
3. Was it easy to access this activity?
4. Did you complete the activity? How long did you work on it?
5. What did you learn from doing this activity?
6. Rate how well it helped you on your test_____

For example:
Module 1 Activity #1: Multiple Choice test

1. Describe the activity: This multiple choice test contained 10 multiple choice questions addressing......
2. Overall Rating____4 Why? Because ......, I scored 100% on this pre-test after taking it 2 times.
3. Was it easy to access this activity? Yes
4. Did you complete the activity? How long did you work on it? Yes...it took me 45 minutes each time
5. What did you learn from doing this activity? I learned the definition of psychology, .......(list at least 3 concepts you learned)
6. Rate how well it helped you on your test:4____
