Unit 25: The Lymphomas
Learning Objectives

At the end of this unit, the student should be able to:

1. Define malignant lymphoma.

2. List the two major categories of lymphoma.

3. Name the characteristic cell found in the bone marrow of patients with Hodgkin’s disease.

4. Name the infectious agent that is associated with the pathogenesis of Hodgkin’s disease.

5. Using the Rye system of classification, list and describe the categories of Hodgkin’s disease.

7. Name the two population groups associated with Burkitt’s lymphoma.

8. Name the cytogenic translocation associated with Burkitt’s lymphoma.

9. Name the syndrome associated with cutaneous T-cell lymphoma.