Useful Terms

12th Class Day Data - total enrollments as of the 12th day of class of the 16 week session.
(Official Reporting Date for the Fall and Spring Semesters)

Contact Hour - an instructional unit of time in which a student has contact with an instructor; includes both lecture and laboratory time.

Enrollment - the number of courses students have registered for.

Headcount - the number of students enrolled in one or more courses. This number may be duplicated or unduplicated.

Reporting Dates – Fall/Spring: 12th Class Day
Summer: 4th Class Day of the 2nd 5½ week session

Semester Credit Hours (SCH) – transcript value of a course based on the number of hours it meets per week. For example, PSYC-2301 meets for three hours a week and is worth three semester credit hours.

³ An instructional unit of time in which a student has contact with an instructor (includes both lecture and laboratory time.)

⁵ Locations, other than campuses, that are staffed, have regular posted hours, and offer credit courses on a regular basis (every semester).

⁶ Various credit and non-credit classes and training offered for businesses, government entities, high schools, correctional institutions, and community groups.

² Students who enroll in more than one course are counted once for each course.

³ Distance Learning Hybrids (HYD) offer students the majority (51% or more) of their course work online via the Internet, with some classroom and/or laboratory meeting times.

⁴ Prior to Fall 2006, interactive video classes were classified as telecommunicated instruction.
