3.4 Describe how the evaluation measures are appropriate and relevant for the proposed objectives (improvements).

The evaluation measure will identify the number of students participating in the Group Planning Sessions. This will be an indicator of the number of new students seen during the registration periods. The time available to see students will indicate the increased amount of time that students spend with counselors and advisors and the wait time required.

3.5 Describe the process used to evaluate the results of your improvements (objectives), and indicate who participated in the review.

The satisfaction surveys provided during the registration periods will indicate improved counseling and advising sessions for new students.
