

Course Syllabus/Outline Development Form

1. NAME OF COURSE:

ITSE 6078 Documentation Issues

2. NUMBER OF CLOCK HOURS:

8 hrs

3. COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Reviews the basics of proofreading localized documentation, including accuracy and consistency, examples and screen captures, general page layout, cross references, and so on. Also, covers how to write and develop English documentation with localization issues in mind. There are no prerequisites.

4. COURSE OBJECTIVES:

- a. Proofread localized documentation
- b. Check for accuracy, consistency
- c. Evaluate examples, screen captures
- d. Verify page layout and cross references
- e. Develop English documentation with localization in mind

5. RATIONALE:

Students will be able to produce quality localized documentation and develop English documentation with localization in mind.

6. REQUIRED MATERIALS:

Author: Bert Esselink
Title: A Practical Guide to Software Localization
ISBN-10: 1588110060
ISBN-13: 978-1588110060

7. EVALUATION:

1. Class participation
2. Test score
3. Attendance

8. COURSE OUTLINE:

Topic	Sub-topics	# of hours
1. Proofreading localized documentation and consistency	1.A Accuracy	2
	1.B Examples and screen captures	1 ½
	1.C General page layout	1 ½
	1.D Cross references
2. Developing English documentation with localization in mind	2.A	2

total