Think You Know Your Rights?
Test Your Beliefs!

ACC Constitution Debate Day Celebration

Wednesday, September 22, 2010 • 5:30 – 8:30 pm
Light refreshments will be served

Palmer Events Center
900 Barton Springs Rd, Austin, TX 78704

ACC’s Center for Public Policy and Political Studies (CPPPS), its Division of Social and Behavioral Sciences, and their CSPS (Center for Student Political Studies) invite ACC students to examine their knowledge and beliefs about the U.S. Constitution, and to reflect on the state of their rights in today’s politically-charged climate.

Co-host of the program is the City of Austin, with honorary Chairman Mayor Pro-tem Mike Martinez. The event is co-sponsored by the ACLU Foundation of Texas and Texas Campus Compact.

STUDENTS:
Check with professors about extra credit

ACC students needing a sign language interpreter or other accommodations, please contact John Aintablian at aint@austincc.edu at least 48 hours in advance.

Questions? Please contact Carla Jackson at cjackso3@austincc.edu or 512-223-7049.
The new PEC features an on-site four-story 1,200-car Parking Garage. The north entrance to the Parking Garage is on Riverside Drive, near South First Street. The south entrance is on Barton Springs Road, between Bouldin and Dawson streets. A drop-off circular drive on Barton Springs Road provides easy access to the facility’s main entrance.

Austin Community College’s Constitution Debate Day participants will receive complimentary parking on September 22, 2010. If an attendant is present, please state that you are here for the Debate.