Historical Profile

Austin Community College was established in December 1972 by voters of the Austin Independent School District. In the fall of 1973, ACC registered 2,363 students. Classes began on September 17, 1973. The AISD Board of Trustees served as ACC’s Board of Trustees, and the College shared the district’s boundaries.

In December 1978, ACC was fully accredited by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS) as a public, two-year community college. ACC’s enrollment had increased to 13,481.

On March 1, 1982, the Board, following the guidelines of the Texas Education Code, established its own governing Board of Trustees, consisting of nine members. ACC received reaccreditation by SACS in 1983 and again in 1993.

With its purchase of the Austin Country Club in January 1983, ACC acquired its first real estate. Situated at 5712 East Riverside Drive, the property is now ACC’s Riverside Campus. ACC’s Board of Trustees held its first election in the spring of that year.

On November 5, 1985, 83 percent of the citizens of the Leander Independent School District voted to become part of the ACC district.

Following the passage of the 1985 Legislative Appropriations Bill, which stated, “It is the intent of the Legislature that all public junior colleges receiving state appropriations shall initiate procedures necessary to secure ad valorem revenues sufficient to supplement the funding of the district by August 31, 1987,” ACC held a successful tax base election. The measure approved a maximum of 5 cents per $100 assessed property valuation.

Presently, the College maintains six full-time campuses in addition to the Highland Business Center, which houses the administration offices and a business training center. The campuses are Cypress Creek (1991), Eastview (1999), Northridge (1989), Pinnacle (1990), Rio Grande (1975) and Riverside (1984).
Mission Statement

Austin Community College operates on the belief that open access to quality postsecondary educational experiences is vital in a rapidly changing democratic society. Therefore, the College exists to provide such educational opportunities to all the people of the Austin Community College service area. Hence, Austin Community College maintains an “open door” admissions policy, offers a comprehensive variety of postsecondary educational programs, and actively seeks to eliminate barriers in the educational process.

The legal mission of Austin Community College is prescribed by the Texas Legislature:

- Technical programs up to two years in length leading to associate degrees or certificates;
- Vocational programs leading directly to employment in semiskilled and skilled occupations;
- Freshman and sophomore courses in arts and sciences;
- Continuing adult education for occupational or cultural upgrading;
- Compensatory education programs designed to fulfill the commitment of an admissions policy allowing the enrollment of disadvantaged students;
- A continuing program of counseling and guidance designed to assist students in achieving their individual goals; and
- Such other purposes as may be prescribed by the Coordinating Board, Texas College and University System, or local governing boards, in the best interest of postsecondary education in Texas.

Statement of Values and Ideals

Austin Community College is an educational institution committed to challenging the human mind to explore new ideas and seek new opportunities.

The College’s mission is to provide a wide range of high quality educational services which meet the needs of our willing partners in learning, both those who seek our services and those whom we must seek out. The District shares a mutual accountability with all parts of the community. ACC will adapt to meet a growing range of individual and community needs.

The ACC district will fulfill its mission to the extent of its fiscal and legal capacity in support of the following ideals:

Quality

- Emphasis on teaching
- High educational standards
- A faculty and staff dedicated to the success of all students
- An environment conducive to personal excellence and growth for all students
- Assurance of transfer of arts/sciences courses to four-year institutions
- Relevance to employment needs of vocational/technical courses
- A plan for educational excellence which includes identification of at-risk students

Flexibility

- Adapting to our community during times of rapid social and technological change
- Developing an open curriculum which accommodates rapid change
- Designing instructional methodologies and providing technological equipment relevant to a changing society
- Ensuring continued professional competence of faculty and staff at all levels

Accessibility

- An open door for all those who wish to attend
- Assessment of entering student academic abilities
- A determination to actively seek out those who may benefit from a community college education
- The belief that every individual should have the opportunity to pursue a higher education
- A tuition/fee structure which promotes the open door
- Creative ways to provide services to the community

Diversity

- Understanding our world as one large, complex community
- Fostering a genuine appreciation of a multi-cultural community
- Promoting a genuine belief in the dignity, equality and value of every person

The Austin Community College Board of Trustees adopted this policy on March 4, 1974 and amended it on November 13, 1989. It was reaffirmed on February 3, 1997.
