Useful Terms

ACC Taxing District - includes the Austin, Leander, Manor, and Del Valle Independent School Districts.

Enrollment - the number of students enrolled in a course. Duplicated enrollment occurs when a student is counted more than one time because they are enrolled in more than one course. For example, a student who attends several courses at one location and one or more courses at a second location is counted twice, once at each location.

Service Area - ACC’s service area encompasses the following eight counties: Blanco, Bastrop, Caldwell, Hays, Gillespie, Gonzales (includes only the part of the Nixon-Smiley Consolidated Independent School District located in Gonzales County), Travis (excludes the territory within the Marble Falls Independent School District), and Williamson (excludes the territory within the Florence, Granger, Hutto, Taylor, and Thrall Independent School Districts).

Historical Profile

Austin Community College (ACC) was established in December 1972 by voters of the Austin Independent School District (AISD). In the fall of 1973, ACC registered 2,363 students. Classes began on September 17, 1973. The AISD Board of Trustees served as ACC’s Board of Trustees, and the College shared the district’s boundaries.

In December 1978, ACC was accredited by the Commission on Colleges of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS) to award associate degrees. ACC’s enrollment had increased to 13,481 students.

On March 1, 1982, the Board, following the guidelines of the Texas Education Code, established its own governing Board of Trustees, consisting of nine elected members. Accreditation was reaffirmed by SACS in 1983 and 1993.

With its purchase of the Austin Country Club in January 1983, ACC acquired its first real estate. Situated at 5712 East Riverside Drive, the property is now ACC’s Riverside Campus. ACC’s Board of Trustees held its first election in the spring of that year.

On November 5, 1985, 83 percent of the citizens of the Leander Independent School District voted to become part of the ACC taxing district.

Following the passage of the 1985 General Appropriations Act, which stated that “it is the intent of the Legislature that all public junior colleges receiving state appropriations shall initiate procedures necessary to secure ad valorem revenues sufficient to supplement the funding of the district by August 31, 1987,” ACC held a successful tax base election. The measure approved a maximum rate of 5 cents per $100 assessed property valuation.

On November 3, 1998, 70 percent of the citizens of the Manor ISD voted to become part of the ACC taxing district.

On May 3, 2003, voters held a successful referendum that increased the College’s maximum tax rate to 9 cents per $100 assessed property valuation and approved the sale of $99 million in bonds for construction of a South Austin campus and other facility improvements.

On May 15, 2004, sixty percent of the voters of Del Valle Independent School District approved annexation to the ACC taxing district.

Jeffrey Richard, Secretary

Jeffrey Richard was elected to the Board of Trustees in 2004, and was elected Secretary that year as well. His priorities for service include maintaining and strengthening ACC’s accreditation with SACS; expanding opportunities for students throughout the region to pay less in ACC tuition by having their jurisdictions vote to join ACC; providing re-training/re-skilling services that enable adults to adapt to ever-changing marketplace demand; and pursuing new funding sources similar to the “Rising Star” scholarship program, in order to enable more students to pay for community college education.

Richard is Vice President of Education for the Greater Austin Chamber of Commerce, where he studies policy and monitors outcomes in K-12 academic achievement and success. He has more than 15 years of consulting experience and has conducted performance improvement and technology consulting projects for school districts, local governments, and state agencies. Richard has reviewed a number of school district budgets and operations, including Dallas ISD, Houston ISD, North East ISD, Knox County (Tennessee) Public Schools; and Fairfax County (Virginia) Public Schools. He also was part of the professional consulting team that reviewed the technology infrastructure at Austin Community College as part of the Texas Comptroller’s Performance Review. Additionally, he has served as an adjunct faculty member in Economics at Texas State University-San Marcos since 2001.

Richard holds a B.S. in Political Science and Economics from Texas Christian University, with Phi Beta Kappa and Magna Cum Laude honors. He also earned a Master’s degree in Urban Economic Development from the John F. Kennedy School of Government at Harvard University. In addition, he graduated from the Leadership Austin Class of 2001-02, and is also a licensed Christian Minister, serving in an associate capacity at the St. James Baptist Church in Austin, Texas. He and his bride, Naomi, have a daughter.

Rafael Quintanilla
