Useful Terms

Contact Hour - an instructional unit of time in which a student has contact with an instructor; includes both lecture and laboratory time.

Course Enrollment - the number of students enrolled in a course.

Headcount - the number of students enrolled in one or more courses.

Credit Programs Summary

- Austin Community College's (ACC) student headcount in credit programs declined in Fall 2003 (28,862 students) after two fall terms of growth.
- Fall 2003 data revealed that ACC achieved all-time highs in total contact hours, semester credit hours, and full-time student equivalent.
- With the opening of the Health Science building in Fall 2003, Eastview's headcount increased 19%, its course enrollments increased 39%, and its contact hours increased 61% compared to Fall 2002.
- Examination of Fall 2003 Telecommunicated delivery methods revealed that course enrollments and contact hours delivered via personal computers with modems and interactive videos increased from Fall 2002.
- The Academic areas of ACC generated 79% of total contact hours and 75% of enrollments in Fall 2003.
- Academic year 2003 annual contact hours for the Health Science Dean area increased 16% from the previous academic year, the highest increase among all Dean areas.

Programs of Study Fall 2003

The educational programs of Austin Community College include workforce programs and academic/programs . The workforce programs are designed to meet the increasing demand for skilled technicians and paraprofessionals for employment in industry and business. ACC awards both associate of applied science (AAS) degrees and certificates in workforce programs. Associate of arts (AA) and associate of science (AS) degrees are awarded as transfer degrees and correspond to the first two years of a baccalaureate program at four-year institutions.
